Shipper agrees to the UPS Terms found at www.ups.com and UPS service centers. For international air carriage, the Warsaw Convention as amended or Montreal Convention may apply and limits UPS's liability for loss or damage to cargo. International carriage by road may be subject to the Convention on the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods By Road. Except as otherwise governed by international conventions or other mandatory law, the shipper agrees to limit UPS's liability for damage, loss or delay of this shipment. There are no stopping places agreed upon by the shipper or tender of the shipment and UPS reserves the right to route the shipment in any way it deems appropriate and is not bound by law. Shipper authorizes UPS to act as forwarding agent for export control and customs purposes and to obtain from the U.S. Customs and Border Protection that the commodities, technology or software were exported from the U.S. for the purpose of the export administration Regulations. Diversion contrary to law is prohibited.
